documents, compliant with practice rules, before the next date of hearing.

3. Accordingly, the application stands disposed of.

I.A. 30312/2024 (seeking exemption from advance service)

4. Considering the facts and circumstances of the present case, the application is allowed and disposed of.

I.A. 30311/2024 (under Order I Rule 10 read with Order XXXIX Rule 1 and 2 read with Section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908)

5. A copy of revised Document-A has been handed over across the board and is taken on record. Let the copy of the revised Document-A also be E-filed.

6. On 2nd June, 2023, an ex-parte ad interim injunction was issued against Defendant Nos. 1 to 30,<sup>1</sup> with specific directions restraining Defendants No.1 to 7 from using the Plaintiff's mark "ASIAN PAINTS" as well as any other deceptively similar mark. Later, upon the Plaintiff's request to implead additional parties found infringing the Plaintiff's trademark, the order was extended to Defendant Nos. 31 to 42.<sup>2</sup> Following further requests from the Plaintiff, the injunction order has further been extended to additional parties.<sup>3</sup>

7. Ms. Diva Arora Menon, counsel for Plaintiff, submits that subsequent to the issuance of the aforementioned orders, they have identified additional websites (which wholly incorporate their mark "ASIAN PAINTS" and other deceptively similar mark), phone numbers, email addresses, and bank accounts through which the existing and proposed Defendants continue to defraud innocent customers. These Defendants are allegedly using the Plaintiff's trademarks, logos, and advertising campaigns to mislead the public into believing that they represent the Plaintiff and offer authentic dealerships. Some individuals have already fallen victim to such activities and have been duped of substantial sums of money. The effected persons have informed the Plaintiff of the fraud that has transpired and accordingly, the instant application has been filed to implead Defendant Nos. 56 to 73. Some of the proposed Defendants are owners of the domain names mentioned in revised Document-A. Others are subscribers/holders of the phone numbers and the bank accounts mentioned in paragraph 15(a) of the application. Furthermore, the bank where the proposed Defendants hold an account (used to perpetuate fraud) and the Domain Name Registrar of the infringing domain names are sought to be added as parties for the effective implementation of the Court's directives.

8. Heard. The Court has perused the documents filed along with the application and accordingly, the impleadment is allowed. Further, the Court is of the opinion that the Plaintiff has made out a prima facie case for grant of ad interim ex parte injunction in respect of the proposed Defendants, as in the absence thereof, irreparable harm would be caused to the Plaintiff; balance of convenience also lies in favour of the Plaintiff and against the Defendants.

9. Accordingly, the following directions are issued:

(i) Proposed Defendants are impleaded as Defendants No. 56-73 and the amended memo of parties annexed with the instant application is taken on record.
