I.A. 2907/2024 (u/Order XXXIX Rule 1 & 2 r/w Section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, restraining infringement of copyright)

11. Mr. Saikrishna Rajagopal, counsel for Plaintiffs, seeks an ex-parte ad-interim injunction against streaming of Plaintiffs' original content/ work on rogue websites impleaded as Defendants No. 1 to 28, which is protected under the Copyright Act, 1957. He presents the Plaintiffs' case as follows:
  - 11.1. The Plaintiffs namely, Universal City Studios LLC, Warner Bros.

Entertainment Inc., Columbia Pictures Industries, Inc., Netflix Studios, LLC, Paramount Pictures Corporation, and Disney Enterprises, Inc., are amongst the world's leading entertainment companies, engaged in the production and distribution of motion pictures/ cinematograph films. They are the first author/ owner of these works and assert copyright protection therein.

11.2. There is a proliferation of a large number of online platforms enabling circulation of unauthorized, unlicensed and pirated content of the Plaintiffs to viewers. Defendants No. 1 to 28 are few of such rogue websites that are facilitating the streaming/ viewing of cinematograph films and audio-visual content such as, motion pictures and television programs, inter alia generated by the Plaintiffs, on devices connected to the internet. They permit the viewers to store the content on their personal devices, leading to largescale copying and dissemination of such content to other unauthorized and unlicensed users. The said websites act as directories/ indexes of hyperlinks that redirect the end-user to the host site, where the content can be streamed or downloaded from a cloud storage site. Defendants No. 1, 2, 5, 6, 8, 9, 19, 11, 13, 17 and 25 even provide a refined search option to the user, where they can select the content on basis of the type, quality, genre, year of release etc. The operators of these websites employ techniques to mask their identities or provide incorrect details for the purpose of domain name registrations. For a ready reference, a list of impugned websites is attached to the present order as Annexure A.

11.3. Plaintiffs' legal notices to takedown the infringing content from the websites have been futile. Defendants No. 1 to 28 are thus knowingly engaging in the impugned activities, in utter disregard of the Plaintiffs' rights. In addition to enabling the hosting, uploading, steaming, reproducing, downloading etc. of Plaintiffs' works, Defendants No. 1 to 28 also offer hacks to users to circumvent detection or blocking orders. For instance, they recommend users to use VPN to stream the pirated content. Access to several of the Defendant-websites has been blocked across jurisdictions, including, Australia, England and Wales.

11.4. The above-noted assertions are further supported by the findings of a Private Investigator employed by the Plaintiffs. The Investigator has, through an extensive investigation, identified the major 'brands' of websites that provide pirated content and the various guises/ names under which the sites operate. Per the Investigator's report, if the websites are blocked/ taken down under a court order, the operators of such websites create mirroring websites, under the same name so as to draw traffic. For instance, one "ofilmyzilla.agency" which was ordered to be blocked by this Court vide judgment dated 31st August, 2021 in CS(COMM) 401/2022,<sup>1</sup> resembles Defendant No. 2 herein ["ofillyzilla.com.ms"]. A similar pattern has been noted in Defendants No. 1, 3 and 9.

11.5. The Plaintiffs have devoted enormous resources in the creation, production, distribution, marketing and advertising of their content. The act of copying Plaintiffs' original content and storing it on any media, and communicating the same to the public without Plaintiffs' assent amounts to infringement of the Plaintiffs' copyright by Defendants No. 1 to 28 in terms of Section 51(a)(i) and (ii) and Section 51(b) of the Copyright Act. In support of the above, reliance is placed on the judgments of this Court in UTV Software Communication Ltd. and Ors v. 1337x.to and Ors,<sup>2</sup> and

Universal City Studios LLC. & Ors. v. Dotmovies.baby & Ors.<sup>3</sup>

12. The Court has considered the afore-noted and perused the screenshots of impugned websites [Defendants No. 1 to 28] which reveal that the said Defendants are, on a real-time basis, offering for viewing and download the content originally produced by the Plaintiffs, without their consent or a valid license, resulting in financial losses to them. In these circumstances, given the need to adopt stringent measures to curb online piracy, as acknowledged by this Court on several occasions, the Plaintiffs have been able to demonstrate a prima facie case in their favour, and in case an ex-parte ad-interim injunction is not granted, they will suffer an irreparable loss. Balance of convenience also lies in favour of the Plaintiffs, and against Defendants No. 1 to 28.

13. Referring to the judgment in Universal City Studios LLC (Supra), Mr. Saikrishna seeks a dynamic+ injunction in the present case. He emphasizes that the directions issued by this Court in the aforesaid judgment have facilitated identification and blocking of several rogue websites hosting pirated content on just a domestic level, but also internationally. In the opinion of the Court, present is a fit case for the grant of protection to future works that may be created by the Plaintiffs. Accordingly, the following directions are issued:

13.1. The rogue websites – Defendants No. 1 to 28 (as enlisted in Annexure A to this order) are restrained from, in any manner, streaming, reproducing, distributing, making available to the public and/or communicating to the public any copyrighted content of the Plaintiffs including future works of the Plaintiffs, in which ownership of copyright is undisputed, through their websites identified in the present suit or any mirror/ redirect websites or alphanumeric websites, or any variations thereof including those websites which are associated with the Defendants' websites, either based on the name, branding, identity of its operator, or discovered to provide additional means of accessing the Defendants' websites, and other domains/ domain along with their sub-domains and sub-directories, owners, website operators/ entities or even sources of content.

13.2. The Plaintiffs are directed to file an application under Order I Rule 10 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 ["CPC"] for impleadment of domains that are found to be mirror/ redirect websites or alphanumeric websites, or any variations thereof including those websites which are associated with the Defendants' websites either based on the name, branding, identity of its operator, or discovered to provide additional means of accessing the Defendant's website and are discovered to have been engaging in infringing the Plaintiffs' exclusive rights, with sufficient supporting evidence. Such applications shall be listed before the Joint Registrar, who, on being satisfied with the material placed on record, shall issue the appropriate directions to the ISPs and the Defendants No. 38 and 39 – Department of Telecommunications and Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology.

13.3. Defendants No. 29-37/ ISPs shall give effect to this injunction by blocking Defendants No. 1 to 28, as noted in Annexure A. Defendants No. 38 and 39 shall issue blocking orders against the websites within a period of one week from the release of the order.

13.4. The respective Domain Name Registrars of Defendants No. 1 to 28, upon being intimated by the Plaintiffs, shall lock and suspend the said domain names. In addition, any details relating to the registrants of the said domain names including KYC, credit card, mobile number, etc. be also provided to the Plaintiffs.

14. Compliance of Order XXXIX Rule 3 CPC be effected within five days. Compliance and service is permitted through e-mail owing to the fact that the exact contact details or addresses of these parties are not known.

15. Issue notice to the Defendants, by all permissible modes, upon filing of process fee, returnable on 10th July, 2024. Reply to the application be filed within four weeks from the service of the present order along with the paper book.

16. List before the Court on 10th July, 2024.

Annexure

Subject: Action requested to be taken by MEITY and Plaintiff for effective removal of content for viewing by public at large within India as per the said orders of Hon'ble Court.

It is observed that a number of orders of Hon'ble Court are issued for blocking of websites every month. There are around more than 2700 ISPs in India and these ISPs are connected among themselves in a mesh network. DOT is instructing each of the ISPs through emails/through its website for blocking of the websites as ordered by the Hon'ble Courts. Ensuring compliance of the orders by each of the ISPs is a time-consuming and complex task especially in view of multiplicity of orders of Hon'ble Courts, multiplicity of websites to be blocked and multiplicity of ISPs.

2. Allocation of Business Rules inter-alia states thus:-

'Policy matters relating to information technology; Electronics; and Internet (all matters other than licensing of Internet Service Provider).'

3. In view of above and in order to ensure effective removal by content for viewing by public at large, the plaintiff is requested to do a trace route of the web server hosting the said website. In case the web server happens to be in India, the plaintiff may inform the same to Meity who may direct the owner of such web server to stop transmission of content as per IT Act and as directed by the Hon'ble Court so that the content would be blocked from the source itself and the exercise of blocking by 2700 ISPs would not be required.

4. In case such server is located abroad i.e. outside India then access to such URL/website can be blocked through the international internet gateways which are much less in number. This would result in timely and effectively removal of undesirable content for viewing by public at large as is the requirement as per the orders of Hon'ble Court.
